

PESA QLD 2023 Symposium - Keeping The Lights On

September 11, Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Preliminary program

SESSION	START	NAME	COMPANY	TOPIC
1 Keynote Session	8.45	Sue Slater	PESA QLD VP, Symposium chair	Welcome
	8.50	The Hon Scott Stewart MP, Minister for Resources	Queensland Government	Opening address
	9.00	Keld Knudsen	APPEA	Title TBC
	9.30	Tim Dean		You'll never drill for oil on a city street - the impact of social licence on geoscience education in Australia
	10.00	TBC shortly		Title TBC
MORNING TEA	10.30
2 New ideas, new places	11.10	Frank Glass	H2 Resources	Natural Hydrogen, exploring for the fuel of the future
	11.35	Josh Whitcombe	Gold Hydrogen	Gold Hydrogen: an update on their Ramsay naturally occurring hydrogen project
	12.00	Stephen Wilson	University of Queensland	Uranium - Title TBC
LUNCH	12.25
3 Breathing new life into the Deep Bowen Basin	1.30	Mel Wilkinson	Santos	Future exploration opportunities targeting Permian reservoirs in the southern Bowen Basin.
	1.50	Nathan Parker and Ray Johnson Jr	Origin Energy & Novus	What lies beneath – a review of frontier exploration for deep plays in the Bowen Basin
	2.10	Greg Channon	Elixir Energy	Grandis Project - Title TBC
	2.30	Leslie Atkinson	Omega Oil & Gas	Unlocking the Taroom Trough
AFTERNOON TEA	2.50
4 Old places, new ideas	3.30	Farah Fazu	Central Petroleum	Qualitative Facies identification on a limited dataset in Amadeus Basin, NT
	3.55	Daniela Clarke	Vintage Energy	Vintage Energy and the Vali-Odin Fields: Exploration to Production in three years
	4.20	Chris Holmes	Denison Gas	Denison Trough - Turning the lights back on
	4.45	Sarah Harris	PESA QLD PRESIDENT	Closing and Award for Best Presentation
COCKTAILS IN THE FOYER	5.00pm			